Recognizing that being a military child can have its own unique issues, Military Youth on the Move is a one-stop-shop for advice and information on moving, social life, school and more for military children, youth, and parents.

Information for youth, preteens, and teenagers includes age-appropriate articles and tips on being the new kid, getting involved in the community, adjusting to a new school, managing money, and developing leadership skills.

Featured sections for all ages are dedicated to moving out, healthy living, getting help, staying safe, and podcasts and electronic media.

- Moving Out provides information and tips for packing, saying goodbye, on the road, staying in touch, and moving overseas.
- Healthy Eating provides information and tips for eating healthy and physical education.
- Get Help provides information and tips for deployment, divorce, bullying, and talking to someone.
- Stay Safe provides information and tips for social media safety and online predators.
- Podcasts and Videos provide additional information that can be enjoyed on various mobile devices.

Information for parents features articles and tips for helping their children prepare to move, change schools, make new friends, get involved in their community, stay healthy, manage their finances, navigate new challenges, plan for life after college, and adopt safe online habits.

Youth Enrichment Program (YEP): Summer 2015 Dates & Cities

The Youth Enrichment Program (YEP) provides Army Reserve youth between the ages of 6-18 programming that consists of academic, sports, cultural themes, recreational, and leadership activities.

YEPs are open to Army Reserve youth and age requirements vary depending on the activity.

YEPs can last from 4 hours to a full day and age requirements vary depending on the activity.

YEPs provide a fun and engaging supplement to academic skills through interactive learning and leadership activities that focus on a specialty subject, such as college preparation, workforce preparation, and/or STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics).

YEPs are offered at no cost to participants. However, parents/guardians are responsible for transportation to and from the event. Depending on the YEP activity, parents/guardians are also responsible for ensuring a bag lunch and beverage accompanies their youth.

For more information, please contact a CYSS staff member listed on the contact page of this newsletter or visit <http://arfp.org/cyss>.

MISA: Military Impacted Schools Association

Education is an important quality of life program for military Families. Military Impacted Schools Association (MISA) is a national organization of school superintendents dedicated to serving school districts with a high concentration of military children.

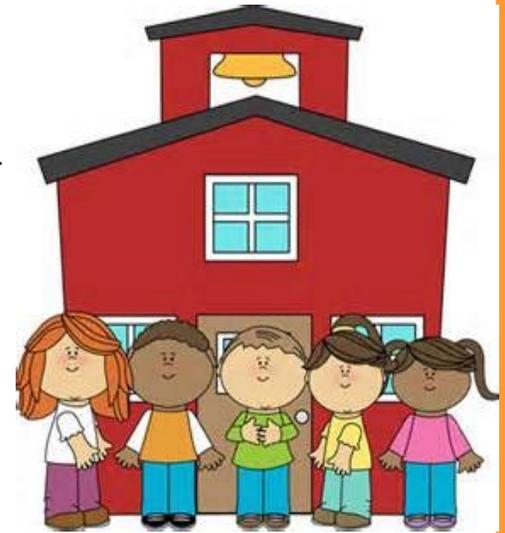

Formed in 1986, MISA works on funding (Impact Aid), legislation, partnerships and programs for military Families on the move.

MISA partners with the Department of Defense Education Activity, National Military Family Association, and military leaders to ensure that all military children are afforded a quality education.

The site contains an extensive list of links for useful resources for military Families and schools.

The resources for Families include:

- Adolescent psychiatry
- After deployment
- Connectedness
- Family Education Network
- Future of Children
- Interstate Compact
- Kindergarten Eligibility by State
- March 2 Success
- Military Kids Connect
- Military OneSource
- My Military Life App
- Operation Purple Camp
- Resilience in Time of War
- School Liaisons
- School Psychologists
- Special Needs
- Student Checklist
- Talk with Kids
- Tutors for Military Students
- Zero to Three

MISA works to develop many partnerships with a common cause -- doing what's best for our military children and Families, as identified above.

MISA also works with local school districts to include a military representative on the school board, open lines of two-way communication between school district and military installation, and provide information regarding Impact Aid Reauthorization. Impact Aid is the second oldest elementary-secondary federal education program administered by the Department of Education currently in law.

Family Readiness and Resource Fair

It was a beautiful day for the 84th TC Family Readiness and Resource Fair. Ten vendors set up marketing tables under two tents to provide shade for the Families as they gathered information and resources. Another tent covered seating for Families to rest and relax while the last tent covered the arts and craft activities for the children and youth. The Boys & Girls Clubs of America provided child and youth activities such as bocce ball, corn hole, croquet and an obstacle course. They also provided face painting, coloring, beading bracelets as well as chalk and oil pastel painting and an amazing inflatable laser tag attraction. There were approximately 125 Service Members, 50 Family Members, and 50 children and youth present throughout this event. Three 84th TC Teen Council representatives were in attendance to recruit for additional teen council members.

GIVING BACK

IT IS THE MISSION of the Youth Angels Foundation to assist young people in achieving their life goals by providing them a financial helping hand to pursue higher education.

We are now engaged in collaborating with the military to see how we can further the education of Service Members or their dependents who are currently serving in the rank of E-6 and below.

In this way, we can say, "Thank you," to the military for serving!

$25,000, over a 4-year period, will be paid directly to the school of the applicant's choice—a 4-year university, trade school, or community college—and will pay solely for tuition, books and fees (does not include any other expenses).

"We are very excited to be able to give back to the military for what they do for us, either to the serving soldiers or their children." -Erika

THE APPLICATION DEADLINE IS FRIDAY, JULY 10, 2015.
ALL APPLICATIONS SHOULD BE SUBMITTED TO

Teen Council

Have your voice heard and represent the 84th Training Command children and youth! Why read about history when you can make it? Be a part of our Teen Council and take your place! The 84th Training Command Teen Council is looking for youth between the ages of 13-17, that are willing to take the challenge and become youth leaders within the command and their community!

Through this opportunity, youth will gain public speaking and leadership skills, work on professional and personal development skills, experience workshops on communication, develop effective strategies and implement solutions for issues they face as Army Reserve youth. Build your portfolio for life after school. You can make a difference!

The Teen Council's goal is to empower youth with the core values of leadership, service and resiliency. They aim to promote high standards of learning through curricula, resources and activities. Each well-qualified candidate is chosen based on a thorough selection process revealing their experience, dedication and willingness to speak on behalf of AR children and youth.

BASIC QUALIFICATIONS

- 84th Training Command connected youth
- A member in good standing in the military or local community
- Enrolled in the 8th - 11th grade for the 2015-2016 school term
- Maintain a grade point average of 2.5 or better

If you are interested in joining the Teen Council please contact the CYSS staff listed on the contact page of this newsletter.

BASIC RESPONSIBILITIES

- Serve a two-year term
- Attend up to four meetings annually/travel paid for face-to-face meetings
- Provide at least 4 hours/month with military and/or community activities
- Work with fellow teens to develop innovative opportunities
- Attend local/regional command youth events as assigned
- Inform Army Reserve leadership about the needs of youth

Resources and Web Links

For Deployed, AGR, Wounded, Ill, Injured or Fallen Soldiers

Army Fee Assistance is provided by General Services Administration (GSA,) working with those who serve in the military find and afford child care that suits their unique needs. Through the fee assistance program, Families are eligible to receive monthly fee assistance to help offset the cost of child care in their communities. For more information visit, http://financeweb.gsa.gov/childcare_portal.

Army Respite Care The Army Respite Child Care will provide the Family between 8 to 16 hours of hourly child care each month for each of the eligible children. Parents can use this time to run errands, attend appointments, or just take some well-deserved time out for themselves. The Army recognizes the challenges and extraordinary stress the parents and their Families may be experiencing, and wants to help support them in meeting their unique child care needs. Eligibility: Deployed; Temporary Change of Station; Unaccompanied Permanent Change of Station; Temporary Duty; Wounded, Ill or Injured Status; Survivors of Fallen Warriors.
